Counselor Education at UConn...join us!

- Faculty include certified school counselors, and licensed professional counselors and psychologists.
- Students complete their internship experience in a variety of school districts.
- Students and alumni have been recognized for their excellence in school counseling.
- The program takes on a social justice approach that emphasizes diversity, equity, and inclusion.
- Students present at professional conferences and are encouraged to focus on their professional development as counselors and counselor educators.
- Faculty are involved in professional counseling organizations and engage in research.
- Yearly evaluations allow us to continue improving our program and your educational experience.
- UConn’s Neag School of Education ranks among the top 20 graduate schools of education in the nation.

What is counseling?

“a professional relationship that empowers diverse individuals, families, and groups to accomplish mental health, wellness, education, and career goals.” – American Counseling Association
School Counseling Master’s Program

Our 60-credit program is accredited by The Council for Accreditation of Counseling and Related Educational Programs (CACREP) and requires a 600-hour internship.

Year 1: Coursework and Practicum Experience (100 hours)

Year 2: Coursework and Internship Experience (600 hours)

Counselor Education Doctoral Program

In order to provide future students with a quality experience, we are currently revising our program and will notify you as soon as we begin accepting new students!

“Professors were thorough and prepared us in all aspects of best school counseling practices and advocacy.”

Core Program Faculty

Diandra J. Prescod, Ph.D.
Diandra.Prescod@uconn.edu
Associate Professor and Program Coordinator

James O'Neil, Ph.D.
James.O'Neil@uconn.edu
Professor

Clewiston Challenger, Ph.D.
Clewic@uconn.edu
Assistant Professor in Residence

Program Website

https://counseling.education.uconn.edu

How to Apply

Complete the online application at grad.uconn.edu which includes:

- Resume
- Application Essay
- Three Letters of Recommendation
- Official Transcripts
- Official TOEFL scores (international students)

All applications are due December 1

Students are invited for on-campus interviews in January